Greetings, Brethren.

As we transition back into the rain season, where the rest of the Northern Hemisphere begins to slow down, grab the blankets and start hibernating, Washington Lodge 20 will keep the Summer energy going strong.

November looks to be another busy month with the Annual Election of Officers, our highly anticipated Ladies Night, a multi-Candidate EA Degree, and the beginning of the holidays.

But first, I would like to salute Brother Allan Harlan, who was initiated an Entered Apprentice Mason by the Past Masters of our Lodge. And what a treat that was! A big shout out to that very special group of seasoned Masons who conducted the Ceremonies and delivered a magnificent performance. Dinner was served prior to the meeting and awards were presented to the Past Masters in recognition of their faithful service and exceptional leadership and devotion to this Lodge. A Past Masters Night we will never forget.

At the November 4th Stated Meeting, Master Masons will vote in the Annual Election of Officers for the ensuing Masonic year. We will be electing our new Master and Wardens, who will lead us in the coming year. We also elect our Treasurer and Secretary, as well as delegates to the Temple and Cemetery Boards. Plan to attend and join us in this time-honored duty. Master Masons must be in good standing to be permitted to vote in the Election of Officers. Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Dinner will be served at 6:00 PM, when we will use the opportunity to recognize our Veterans and thank those brave individuals who have risked their lives and have fought for the cause of Freedom.

Our Stated Meeting for the month of September will be on Thursday, the 2nd, our regular first Thursday of the month, when we will have the honor of formally receiving Worshipful Michael Woo, Inspector of the 414th Masonic District. Please make plans to attend. Before the Stated Meeting, we will gather in the Banquet Room for dinner. Please RSVP for dinner today to Master@WLN20.org.

On September 18th, please join us at 9:30 AM, in partnership with the River City Food Bank, an independent 501c3 non-profit organization, at The Center at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, 2300 Edison Ave, Sacramento, CA 95821.

River City Food Bank has identified Arden Arcade as the area in which it can make the greatest impact in reducing hunger and building community -- through donations, volunteer hours, and community partnerships. You can now donate your time -- together with the Brethren of Washington Lodge No. 20 -- and help feed the hungry in Sacramento. Register today. Space is very limited. Only 20 spots available. Please RSVP today to Master@WLN20.org. We are asking for your time but if you wish to also donate dry goods, please bring your donations to the Sacramento Masonic Temple during operation hours (Mon-Fri 8:00 AM-12:00 PM).

I also would like to invite you to another Double First Degree on September 23rd, when we will be welcoming Mr. Jonathon Miller and Mr. Kevin Hall into the Craft. Dinner at 6:00 PM followed by the Initiation Ceremony. Please RSVP for dinner today to Master@WLN20.org.

Just a couple of days later, on Saturday, September 25th, join us for another Masonic Volunteering event, from 9:30 AM to 1:30 PM, together with Masons from Gen. Douglas MacArthur Lodge 853, Union-Tehama Lodge 3, Sacramento Lodge 40, Valley Lodge 135, Philomathean Lodge 2 Prince Hall, Ben Ali Shriners Islander Club, and in partnership with Marites and James S. Labang, Sikap Foundation, Inc., and the Sacramento City Unified School District - Homeless Services Office:

Congratulations to our newly initiated brothers as they begin their Masonic odyssey! Brother Moises Gonzalez and Brother Brandon Jenkins (what's his name again?) will be excellent additions to our ancient and honorable fraternity. Thank you to their families for joining us for dinner on their big night. Thank you to Amy Gonzalez and Beth Jenkins for bringing your families. Your support is important to our fraternity and your husbands could not do it without you. As I have told others before, there should be greater importance placed on the acceptance by the spouse than on the candidate. Harmony at home means harmony at the Lodge.

Initiating two of our brothers in one night is no small task. It takes careful planning and constant practice both at the Lodge level and the individual level. Fortunately for us, we have an excellent cadre of officers and Past Masters to complete the rituals successfully. Brother Nicholas Johnston was an excellent role model serving in the East. Brother Mauro Lara and the rest of the officers performed their ritual duties wonderfully. Despite the long night, everyone including the brothers who were simply in attendance did well.

Long nights of ritual remind me of a piece of advice from a trainer I follow in online workouts. And I know what you're thinking. Another article connecting our experiences as brothers to another one of Brother Russ' online workouts…

"Give people the best of us, not what's left of us."

Long days and nights of ritual can be very taxing on any brother. Whether you're a seasoned Past Master with decades of Freemasonry under your belt or a newly minted and eager Entered Apprentice, you will always catch yourself looking at your watch, writing your grocery list in your head (oddly specific), planning tomorrow, or any multitude of things that mentally pull you out of these long events. Lodge functions and rituals on a Thursday (why oh why not a Friday?) add to the challenge.

At the end of the day, it is easy to tell yourself you are tired. You probably are. If you gave most of your energy to the day, you have probably told yourself to give the remaining energy to the Lodge functions as the end. That is where the advice above comes into play. We should not give what energy we have left. We should give our best selves. During any function or ritual, we are usually there for someone else whether it's for the good of the Lodge (like Stated Meeting) or ritual (for our individual Brothers). It is the unerring duty of every brother to give their best at any function of the Lodge. We must remember that it is given to us strictly in charge to walk and act as a just and upright Freemason.

What do I mean about giving our best? It's not as difficult as it seems. If you find yourself slouching, pull yourself up. If you find yourself nodding off or your mind wandering, bring yourself to the present and listen to the words said and invocations given. Let the words and invocations remind you of your obligations and why you are here.

Personally, I keep myself in the present by giving the reassuring smile. Whether I'm giving it to a candidate or an officer performing their duties or a brother across the room, it always brings me to the present and reassures whoever I'm giving it to that I am here for them.

Honestly, once I get home after any long ritual night on a workday, I have no problem getting comfortable, kissing my wife and kids goodnight, and having some good Scotch or Rye Whiskey.

I think I earned that.

This month, Brother Norman Heisel turns eighty years of age. Thirty years ago, Brother William Hill was raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason. Congratulations Brethren on your milestones.

In the month of September, we make the transition from Virgo to Libra on the day of the autumnal equinox, which happens on September 22nd. Just as in March, the days and nights will be of equal length on that day. The difference is that now the night overtakes the day by progressively longer amounts as we look towards the winter solstice.

Libra of course is well known for the symbol of the scales. One of the bearers of the scales depicted in Ancient Greece is the Titaness Themis, who was the Greek personification of divine laws and customs.

Themis' daughter, Dike, also was depicted with the scales, but her sense of justice is concerned with social laws, norms, and customs. As both Themis and Dike are well-known symbols of Justice, we are reminded how Justice is that standard or boundary of right which enables to render onto every man his just due, without distinction.

This virtue is not only consistent with divine (Themis) and human (Dike) laws, but is the very cement and support of civil society. This leads me to recall with pleasure the admonitions of our monitorial: Justice in a great measure constitutes the really good man, and to let it be the guide of your actions. Themis was also known as the organizer of the communal affairs of humans, such as assemblies.

We masons of course hold our own assemblies, and my hope is that this month continues to build on the last two months, which have had some amazing degrees and wonderful stated meetings.

Autumn is a delightful time of year, and I hope the beginning of yours is well-balanced and pleasant.

One of my recent interests is to follow two different solo sailors who are sailing across the oceans and documenting their trips on youtube. This interest then led me to learn a bit about celestial navigation.

The video I have linked below is great to watch for all masons. It features both the terrestrial and celestial spheres. It also contains applied geometry, astronomy, and navigation. It delineates the extent of seas, and also features practical applications of the compass, and applies the circumpunct.

The quadrant arch of the Past Master's jewel also reminds me a bit of the sextant, an instrument used for taking readings of celestial bodies. The video is a bit technical, and if you have no interest in sailing or flying by the stars, it may not mean much. But sometimes you can still learn amazing concepts from other disciplines.

The ancients were able to navigate the world without computers or GPS, just by looking up. What a wonderful skill: to look to the heavens to allow what is above to help us navigate our way through our lives down below.

The Alchemist

25th Anniversary Edition

by Paulo Coelho

A special 25th-anniversary edition of the extraordinary international bestseller, including a new foreword by Paulo Coelho.

Combining magic, mysticism, wisdom, and wonder into an inspiring tale of self-discovery, The Alchemist has become a modern classic, selling millions of copies around the world and transforming the lives of countless readers across generations.

Paulo Coelho's masterpiece tells the mystical story of Santiago, an Andalusian shepherd boy who yearns to travel in search of worldly treasure.

His quest will lead him to riches far different—and far more satisfying—than he ever imagined. Santiago's journey teaches us about the essential wisdom of listening to our hearts, of recognizing opportunity and learning to read the omens strewn along life's path, and, most importantly, to follow our dreams.
